D. BRIEF TEXTUAL DESCRIPTION OF THE NOMINATED ELEMENT:

Tango is a genre that originally involved dance, music, poetry and singing. Tango expresses a way of conceiving the world and life and it nourishes the cultural imagery of the inhabitants of the capital cities of the Rio de la Plata. This genre includes also the milonga, the milonga candombeada and the so-called vals criollo.

Tango was born among the lower urban classes in both cities as an expression originated in the fusion of elements from Argentine and Uruguayan's African culture, authentic criollos [natives of this region] and European immigrants. As the artistic and cultural result of hybridization's processes, Tango is considered nowadays one of the fundamental signs of the Rio de la Plata's identity.

1.d. GEOGRAPHIC LOCATION AND RANGE OF THE ELEMENT:

Tango was originated and developed in both Capitals of the Rio de la Plata's basin: Buenos Aires and Montevideo. Due to this fact, both countries are making a joint presentation for its nomination.

Nowadays even though Tango is well known all over the world and its essence is transformed in multiple aspects and ways, it continues to be one of the most easily identifiable cultural symbols of our identity.

See documents – maps.

1.e. DOMAIN(S) REPRESENTED BY THE ELEMENT:

Tango is present in many fields, especially at:

- a) Oral traditions and expressions, including language as a vehicle of the intangible cultural heritage,
- b) Performing arts: dance, music, poetry, singing,
- c) Social practices and festivity events,
- d) Traditional handcrafted techniques.

2. DESCRIPTION OF THE ELEMENT (CF. CRITERION R.1):

According to the definition of The Convention, Art. Nr. 2, Tango represents Intangible Cultural Heritage as a symbol of human creativity under different human historical circumstances.

In general, Tango is a particular form of expression created by individuals and groups from different origins who lived together under precarious and unstable circumstances, far away from their original countries and roots (the immigrants), far away from their own nature [former gauchos], or descendants of slaves [representing the African American people in the region].

In this forced community, their customs, beliefs, rituals, and objects merged and transformed not only their way of life, but the culture of both cities.

This resulted in cultural heritage involving countless representative works produced by the creative skills of these communities. This new cultural heritage was the result of this melting pot originated in the Rio de la Plata's region.

Tango is an example of a cultural sedimentation's process and it constitutes by itself, along its different stages, an exceptional example of social transformation across time.

Passed on from generation to generation, up to the mid 20th century Tango suffered a decrease in its creation and circulation. At that time younger generations - changed their tastes due to the influence of the international pop culture.

However, the most essential substratum of our urban culture remains and consequently, after a while, renewed forms of Tango appear.

As any long-lasting cultural phenomenon in complex societies, it has enriched itself with a wide variety of contributions. Therefore the need to stress the sense of identity that it proposes, respecting cultural diversity at its very core. Cultural diversity, in fact, belongs to its origin and is critical in its search for its essence and roots.

3.	CONTRIBUTION TO ENSURING VISIBILITY AND AWARENESS AND TO ENCOURAGING DIALOGUE (CF. CRITERION R.2):
	Although Tango is known almost all over the world, not always it is known as it really is in its most authentic way and character. The knowledge about it tends to be superficial and mostly it is seen as extravagant and exotic. For example, Europeans understand Tango as music of the belle-époque, expressing the glamour of those crazy years, the cabarets, the fascination for a sensual dance in which the man leads the woman in a series of exaggerated movements, twisting her torso in a way uncommon in our cities (with the exception of choreographic performances). It seems that Tango is perceived as a synonym of luxury. However, it was born among the lower classes and it took long before it became a success in their hometowns. As a consequence of this distorted image, it is vital to inscribe Tango in the Representative List of Safeguarding Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity in order to secure its visibility as an essential expression and authentic product, result of a multiplicity of cultures with a variety of expressions across time. In a world context in which the great cultural industries produce all kind of articles, from books to DVD's, practically without brands, or showing a certain kind of international folklore with only one target (the consumer), the protection of Tango in all its expressions and in all depth of its meaning, will serve to reaffirm it as a cultural manifestation. This inclusion in the Representative List will be a means to enrich the Intangible Cultural Heritage across the world, while reaffirming at the same time this essential element of the porteña and Montevidean culture.

4.c. COMMITMENTS OF STATES AND OF COMMUNITIES, GROUPS OR INDIVIDUALS CONCERNED:

Letter of commitment of representatives of applicant States, commitment forms and emails by community leaders, showing their awareness about the objectives of this presentation and reassuring the future commitment of all involved parties.

5. COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT AND CONSENT (CF. CRITERION R.4)

5.a. PARTICIPATION OF COMMUNITIES, GROUPS AND INDIVIDUALS:

The elaboration process for the candidacy of the nomination of Tango was undertaken with the constant and proactive participation of the above mentioned communities in Argentina and Uruguay.

This process was initiated months ago with a series of meetings, seminars and interviews, which intended to inform and interest leading individuals from the involved communities about the characteristics and the importance of this presentation.

In this sense, we can stress the participation of diverse institutions, academies, milongas, cultural centres, artists, and Tango personalities.

This presentation was prepared under the tutoring of well known researchers with an important background in the field, such as Gustavo Goldman, Gustavo Mozzi, Ana Sebastián and Carla Algeri.

As a final step in the development of this presentation, several workshops were carried out with the participation of leaders from different Tango expressions, with the purpose of agreeing on the proposals for the definitive document.

5.b. FREE, PRIOR AND INFORMED CONSENT:

As shown in the annex, the community approves this presentation and accepts and confirms its participation and commitment towards this application for the nomination of Tango, and consequently, supports the specialized teams in the matter in Argentina and Uruguay.

Appended.

5.c. RESPECT FOR CUSTOMARY PRACTICES GOVERNING ACCESS:

Through the commitment letters written by the people in charge of the States and the commitment of the represented community, at this stage, the practices and measures of safeguard are approved of and consented as included in this presentation because they will result in the absolute benefit of the condition, nature and protection of Tango.

6. INCLUSION ON AN INVENTORY (CF. CRITERION R.5):

The inventories of the Intangible Cultural Heritage of Uruguay and Argentina are being elaborated according to the criteria in the new Convention of UNESCO and taking into consideration those materials, inventories and records of the intangible cultural heritage already existing in both countries.

Buenos Aires and Montevideo proposed a list of elements related to intangible heritage in each city to the National Authorities of the respective countries. These lists were ratified by authorities, organizations and institutions and will also serve as a basis for future inventories in both cities. Tango is included in these lists.
